PATRICK THURMAN

ORDER REMANDING

On October 5, 2018, the National Labor Relations Board issued a Notice to Show Cause why this case should not be remanded for further consideration under The Boeing Co., 365 NLRB No. 154 (2017). The General Counsel filed a response supporting remand.¹

Having duly considered the matter,

IT IS ORDERED that this proceeding is remanded to Administrative Law Judge Robert A. Ringler for the purpose of reopening the record, if necessary, and the preparation of a supplemental decision addressing the complaint allegations affected by Boeing and setting forth credibility resolutions, findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a recommended Order. Copies of the supplemental decision shall be served on all parties, after which the provisions of Section 102.46 of the Board's Rules and Regulations shall be applicable.

Dated, Washington, D.C., November 19, 2018.

By direction of the Board:

/s/ Roxanne Rothschild

Acting Executive Secretary

¹ The General Counsel requests that the Board remand this case to the Regional Director for Region 28, instead of the administrative law judge, so that he may withdraw certain complaint allegations. The Board denies this request and leaves to the judge's consideration any motion to modify or withdraw the complaint.
